GREAT BRITAIN REJECTS GERMAN PROPOSALS

Union Slugger Confesses

CALMLY TELLS HOW MEN WERE BEATEN; RECEIVED GOOD PAY

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

CHICAGO, April 28.—Sam Fischer, a 22-year-old heavy-weight, thrilled the spectators in Judge Thomas Taylor's court with a two-hour recital of his operations as supervising union for the upholsterers' union. It was a confession probably parallel in the history of Chicago's many union-labor trials.

The witness appeared to be the least-disturbed person in the room as he described how he and his henchmen beat up eight foremen of furniture factories during the strike a year ago. Without a sign of emotion he related how he had stood by and watched men, employed for a few dollars, knock victims down with their fists and bricks and then kick them in the face as they lay helpless on the ground.

Fischer described how workmen, leaving their homes for work in the morning, were met by a mob of thugs, who, waving good-bye from the windows, had been set upon and man-handled almost in the shadows of their homes. He related on the instance in which a torn, blood-spattered glove used by one of the slugs had been carried back to headquarters as evidence that the job had been done, and that the fee, usually about $40 or $50, might be collected.

NAMES CONSPIRATORS. Fischer named two of the three defendants on trial as conspirators—Edwin E. Graves, international vice-president of the union, and Roy Hull, business agent of Local No. 112, as the ones who paid him and his men for slugging. The third defendant, Otto Krueger, member of the executive board, was mentioned only incidentally in the testimony.

Fischer said Hull would summon him to the union headquarters, designate the men to be slugged, and commission him to do the job. Picking up slugs, he said, at $50 a head was easy. He named half a dozen men who were ready for the West side as hangers of this kind.

He planned a part of the system by which the slugs, if they could not get men who were ready for the job, would be able to work.

"After we had knocked him down," he said, speaking of Kennedy, "Potter kicked him on the head a couple of times, and then he ran him over the knuckles with a black jack so he would not be able to get back on the job."

LOOKING FOR TROUBLE. Occasionally, Fischer's new testimony brought out the slugs met some men who were ready for trouble. Once he narrowly escaped being shot. Another slugger brought his arrest and sentence to the Bridewell. In both instances, however, he testified, the officers of the union stood behind him and paid over the money, which had been promised for the job.

"Get anybody who comes out of a shop," was the order Fischer said Graves gave him just after the incident.

TEN KILLED IN HOLD-UP.

Bandits Steal Pay Roll Near Tampico After Battle.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

HOUSTON (Tex.), April 28.—In the bloodiest pay-roll robbery in the history of the oil fields of Mexico a band of fifteen Mexican bandits held off the Atlantic Gulf, West Indies Oil Company and secured approximately $25,000 in Mexican gold near Tampico, April 21, according to delayed advice reaching Houston.

Ten persons were killed, including five bandits, in the fighting that accompanied the hold-up. The pay-roll was being carried by mail by a train from Tampico.

CHARLES WELLS HIDDEN. The oil company's paymaster and his driver had just begun the trip from Old Tampico, six soldiers accompanying the first automobile when it encountered there a band of men blocking the road. The paymaster and his driver were wounded. The soldiers were also wounded. The paymaster and his driver were taken to a hospital. The soldiers were taken to a hospital.

Stream of Gold to Assay Office Swamps Workers

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

NEW YORK, April 28.—Deluged with a steady stream of gold from every quarter of the world, and with their vaults choked and creaking under the weight of it, government officials in the assay office have called a halt to the amount that shall be dumped upon them by bankers for melting and refining.

The assay office in New York has instructed bankers importing gold to America to send the metal to Philadelphia.

LATE NEWS.

TO TIE UP BELGIAN ROADS. BRUSSELS, April 28.—The railroad men have decided to do no work on May 1. This will cause a complete stoppage of the Belgian roads. The Brussels tramways will also suspend operations on that day.

ALABAMA TAXES BACHELORS. DAWSON (T. T.) April 28.—The Legislature today passed the bill taxing bachelors, both men and women, $5 a year in addition to the existing poll tax.

MAY EXPEL FORMER RULER. GENEVA, April 28.—Swiss authorities have appointed Max Huber, legal adviser of the political department, to examine into the legal standing of former Emperor Charles of Austria-Hungary in Switzerland and as to whether he should be permitted to remain or be expelled.

FIRE CHIEF, FIREMEN QUIT. ALEXANDRIA (Va.), April 28.—Fire Chief O'Brien and 150 of his firemen have quit because the city council won't let them go to fire faster than twenty-five miles an hour over the streets upon which George Washington used to walk. When the order was handed down they spread notice that they would take off their uniforms Saturday. The council has named a new chief.

CAN FORCE PRICE CUTS. WASHINGTON, April 28.—Women with "positive conversational powers" can make a bigger dent in retail prices than the whole department of justice machinery, Attorney General Daugherty declared today. A squad of women so equipped could do more with a dealer than the government, he said, adding that retail prices remained up despite the sharp increase in the cost of living. VETERANS' BUREAUS TO BE QUIZZED. Walsh's Charges Result in Resolution Providing for Thorough Investigation.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Sweeping investigation of the sensational charges of Senator Walsh, of Pennsylvania, in the Senate regarding the Federal government's treatment of invalid ex-service men was promised today. Senator Walsh, at the request of many of his colleagues, introduced a resolution providing for the investigation of the treatment of invalid ex-service men.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Audit and Control of Continental Expenses, and probably will be reported favorably within the next day or two.

Senator Walsh's resolution provides for the appointment of a select committee of five members, two Republicans and two Democrats, to investigate all bureaus and agencies of the government dealing with the care, treatment, insuring, compensating, rehabilitating and other matters of veterans of the World War.

It provides specifically for investigation of the treatment of invalid ex-service men, and the scope of activities of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, the United States Public Health Service and the Federal Board of Vocational Education. It calls for a report and recommendations from the committee for the improvement of the welfare of ex-service men at the earliest possible date.

RAILS INDUSTRY'S KEY.

Hoover Declares Use of Emergency High Rates Serious Question Now.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

ATLANTIC CITY (N. J.), April 28.—Maintenance of a government information service to compile and publish production and consumption figures of the more important industries and the primary prices of a few commodities as a remedy for high prices and profiteering was advocated tonight by Secretary Hoover before the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Stability and soundness of business could be greatly enhanced and vicious speculation curtailed, he declared, through realization by the public of the true conditions in the industries.

Many forces are involved in the economic readjustment, he declared, and the government must be prepared to meet the situation. He declared that the government must be prepared to meet the situation.

JURY FINDS VILLISTAS NOT GUILTY.

Mexicans Charged with Murder in Columbus Raid Gain Freedom.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

DEMING (N. M.), April 28.—All sixteen Villistas were acquitted this afternoon of charges of murder in connection with the raid on Columbus, N.M. The verdict was reached on the first ballot.

The jury was out thirty-five minutes.

There are still five indictments against the Mexican prisoners, charging murder in connection with the raid, but these will be dismissed.

Dist. Atty. Forest Fielder stated following the verdict.

The prisoners will be released within a few days and conducted to the border, he announced.

"I am satisfied with the verdict," he said. "I feel that the verdict brings the best solution to the problem of the Villistas."

The Mexican prisoners faced their trial on charges of kidnapping and murder in connection with the raid on Columbus, N.M., in November last.

The raid, which was led by Gen. O. A. Lugo, resulted in the capture of 16 Villistas and the killing of 12 Americans.

The prisoners were held in the local jail until they were taken to the federal penitentiary at San Antonio.

THOROUGHLY BAD, SAYS LLOYD GEORGE; DISCUSS OCCUPATION OF RUHR

(BY JOHN STEELE.)

LONDON, April 28.—Prime Minister Lloyd George declared in the House of Commons this afternoon that the German proposals were utterly unsatisfactory. He said that he had seen them unofficially and he regarded them thoroughly bad, adding that the Allies were unanimous in this opinion.

He announced that British military advisers are examining the French plans for the occupation of the Ruhr district and would report to the Supreme Council in London Saturday.

Replying to questions, the Prime Minister declared the government approved the general policy of coercion for Germany and said the House would have an opportunity to discuss the policy on Thursday next. He refused, however, to allow immediate discussion.

"The German reply is either insane or criminal. Investigation shows her new offer to be absurdly inadequate. It looked fair at first, but Germany's own interpretation makes it impossible."

This statement, which was made this afternoon by a leading official of the British Foreign Office, marks a definite change of front by the British since yesterday and is due to the reply received from Germany to requests for explanation of various points.

Yesterday Great Britain was willing to help Germany secure acceptance of her latest proposals. Today she is as firmly opposed to them as she was formerly.

Belgium also has come in line. M. Janssens, the Belgian Foreign Minister, declaring today that they were "not even worthy of discussion."

INDUCE RICH TO DIE HERE.

Assembly Reduces Tax on Large Estates.

Whole Inheritance Law is Re-nacted to Please.

Lawmakers in Generous Mood on Reconsiderations.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WEBB.)
SACRAMENTO, April 28.—Millionaires of the Eastern States who, according to the debate, desire to die in California, were given inducements to do so today when the Assembly voted approval of a bill by Senators Lyon and Gates, changing the State inheritance taxes so that the larger estates will pay a somewhat smaller proportion than heretofore.

MAY DIE IN PEACE.

The change was made because supporters of the bill said eastern capitalists who had attained advanced years feared to come to California because the inheritance tax on large estates was so large that they deemed it best to live out their days elsewhere. The whole inheritance tax law was re-nacted, making a very bulky bill, the object being to avoid putting bankers, business agents and others unfamiliar with law before the people in the struggle to trace back to a former law after they had looked up the rate of taxation.

IN GENEROUS MOOD.

The Assembly was also in a generous mood towards reconsiderations granting three and containing amendments granted yesterday. The three were a bill by Senator Carr granting school trustees leave to change the location of school sites under certain conditions; a bill by Senator Bennett, fixing the ratio of population to voters in considering the formation of new counties, from five to two and a half persons to each vote, because of the enactment of the Crowley bill giving voting rights to aliens; and a bill by Senator Bennett, fixing the ratio of population to voters in considering the formation of new counties, from five to two and a half persons to each vote, because of the enactment of the Crowley bill giving voting rights to aliens.

RESTORE MISSION.

Senate Appropriating $2000 for restoration of the Mission San Francisco del Colono, in Sonoma. Sample—Appropriating $10,000 for the care and maintenance of State buildings at site of Panama-California Exposition in San Diego.

INMAN—APPROPRIATING $3932.33 TO PAY THE CLAIM OF SACRAMENTO COUNTY FOR COSTS INCURRED IN TRYING FOLK PRISONERS FOR VARIOUS OFFENSES COMMITTED AT THAT PRISON IN SACRAMENTO COUNTY, SUCH AS ASSAULT WITH A DEADLY WEAPON, ETC.

Senator Arnesen's bill to forbid school property being insured in foreign mutual companies, was also approved, having been held on the uninitiated business file because of amendments made yesterday.

Senator Shearer's bill to place a license tax on all automobile stage and truck lines was passed with little debate. It provides for a 2 percent charge on the gross business from which any taxes for operation, or license, paid to subdivisions in the State may be deducted.

An act by Senator Otis providing a retirement and pension scheme for the employees of the State of California was also adopted. It directs a system of small deductions which may be sold employees who have either become physically disabled, or reached the age of 70 years, after twenty-five years of service. The pension will be half pay. A board of retirement is created and the usual executive machinery provided.

The bill introduced by Senator Lyon and providing for the organization of Institutes of technology to teach certain manual arts was passed without debate. This bill caused a considerable commotion when it came before the Senate, and supporters were expecting a fight in the Assembly, but none appeared.

SECOND ATTEMPT.

Another effort to take the hydro-electric power out of the hands of the State, the Committee on Governmental Efficiency and Economy, which had tabled it, failed at the morning session. This was the second attempt within the week.

Up to dinner hour, the Assembly passed about eighty bills, the largest day's work of the session, but had a list of 175 still on file for consideration before noon tomorrow.

Speaker Wright also announced that more than forty Assembly bills that had named the Senate had come back in amended form, and that the Assembly would have to call the roll on each of these amendments, and either concur in them or send the bills to conference. The mere mechanical labor of forty roll calls would require at least two hours, he said, even without the delays incident to examining the amendments.

Senate bills passed at the afternoon session and sent to the Governor, included the following:

Lyon—Limiting the liability of hotelkeepers and similar bailees to $250 for the loss of a single garment.

McDonald—Amending the law defining mattress and to require that they be descriptively tagged when offered for sale.

Lyon—Permitting the organization of corporations "to promote the well-being of mankind."

Sample—Appropriating $10,000 for the care and maintenance of State buildings at site of Panama-California Exposition in San Diego.

Inman—Appropriating $3932.33 to pay the claim of Sacramento county for costs incurred in trying Folk prisoners for various offenses committed at that prison in Sacramento county, such as assault with a deadly weapon, etc.

MARINES: END: LONG: VOYAGE: AT: CAPITAL.

Kept from Virgin Islands Because of Bubonic Plague Attack.

Fliers Land at Bolling Field, Washington.

The four marine corps fliers who started from Washington to the Virgin Islands returned safely from their trip of nearly 500 miles, and are shown in the picture being greeted on their return. The original plan was to fly to the Virgin Islands, but because of an outbreak of the bubonic plague the men made San Domingo, Porto Rico, the far end of the journey. The fliers planned the journey to demonstrate the possibility of landing airplanes quickly in Porto Rico in case of war. Those shown in the picture are, left to right, Maj. Gen. John A. Leleune, Maj. T. C. Turner (in command of the flight), Sgt. Charles W. Rucker, Lieut. Lawson H. Sanderson, Lieut. Basil Bradley and Gen. W. C. Nease.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

A constitutional amendment for submission to the voters of the United States was proposed today by Senator W. R. Sharkey, who offered a Senate joint resolution urging Congress to change the Twenty-first amendment so that a majority of both houses would be necessary to approve a treaty negotiated by the President, instead of two-thirds of a quorum of the Senate as presently. The object, Senator Sharkey said, was to protect the States against the incorporation in treaties of provisions that would be a violation of the State's jurisdiction. It would, he said, prevent such treaty-making as that reported in Washington, which he said had threatened the sovereignty of California in strictly State matters.

COUNTRY REEKS IN PROPAGANDA.

representative Kahn of the latter State has received cables from Americans in Berlin warning them not to come to the aid of the Germans in the reparations matter.

This action is interpreted by some of the men in Washington who dare to speak their minds, as meaning that the Berlin politicians received their petitioning courtesy from the same source that it came from Von Mach in New York, when he called the Madison Square Garden meeting which the American Legion found it necessary to offset with an all-American meeting.

Seemingly the Americans today who are trying to help out Germany are the men who are not so much in debt to Germany as the Americans who are indebted for his election to the votes of un-American Americans, and that neither he nor anyone connected with the Republican administration in whatever capacity can decline to listen to the appeals of the group of German sympathizers who voted for him.

KNOWN TO EXIST.

Dr. Hodgdon's word to the effect that the stream of Red propaganda which has been pouring into Valparaiso has its fountain head in the heart of the Federal government calls sharp attention to a condition which it is known has existed in the capital since the beginning of the war.

It is the hope of some of the men who saw service, and who are today in some official position or another in Washington, that the Federal administration will proceed to get rid of some of the creatures who thought it was their duty to spread propaganda under war conditions and apparently are still thinking crooked and willing to act likewise.

During the Wilson administration there were men of so-called radical tendencies who, without much effort on their own part, secured admission into government employment. They were pariahs, Bolsheviks and theoretical anarchists for the most part.

Not one of them apparently ever had the nerve to try to put his preachments to physical destructive action, but they preached when they could; and those of them who are still here apparently are still continuing to preach by letter, if not by word of mouth. At least this seems to be borne out by the Valparaiso development.

Nearly all the pacifists who found lodgment in the government service as preachers of a radicalism or near radicalism, some of them tried to subvert the Army and Navy in the service, but there were those of them who got into the Army and who never changed their views for as soon as they got out of the Army they proved the fact.

Some of the men who undertook to help in the solution of Russian problems in the administration came back to this country to preach Bolshevism. One government employee argued at length to prove that nothing had been said or printed about "Bolshevism" in the least true, that the Leninist outfit was winged and headed and that Americans had done little but lie about them.

Some of the sympathizers with the government service have departed therefrom and perished, but the continued employment of the Washington service of members of the order of destruction it is possible that the administration will pay heed and lift some of the pestilent ones out by the neck.

FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 29, 1921.

invade the Ruhr. An advance is almost inevitable, in the opinion of observers here.

Members of the French government regard the diplomatic method of the Germans as immeasurably stupid. Throughout the present crisis the French have relied at the bidding of the Berlin government to stave off punishment that it deserves.

Briland, France's able diplomat, has told his aides that his professional interest is such in seeing the international scene clearly played that he has yearned on several occasions to give Dr. Briland a good advice. At the last London conference he jokingly remarked that if all those who would follow France in London were appropriately decorated, the heads of the French government would have received grand crosses.

In London Briland must face Balguy and British opinion, but both of these seem now completely in accord. Only in the event of another French move, or a British move, the British might consider it, but the French would decline it and go ahead with their plans if they were alone—would Briland be confronted with great difficulties.

Referring to the proposals addressed to Washington, M. Briland said: "If Germany wanted to show good faith in executing the Treaty of Versailles, she had only to address her proposals to the reparations commission. The fact that she applied to an intermediary is suspicious, all the more so on account of the fact that she waited until the eve of the day of reckoning to apply to the United States. In the opinion of the American government would intervene and that an interminable discussion would follow. Referring to the French public opinion, Briland said that the French would be unswerving and German proposals would work on foreign opinion with a view to dividing the Allies and estranging sympathy.

FAITH IN HARDING.

BERLIN, April 28.—A semi-official statement was issued here today suggesting that the German government was willing to modify its reparations proposals if asked by Washington to do so, and that such a basis of agreement could be reached.

Possibility that the German proposals may be rejected was reflected in press comment on the situation here, the Vorwarts saying that all probability, the German government would be called upon to further alter its terms if it hopes to achieve success with them.

DER TAG GLOOMY.

The industrialist organ, Der Tag, does not share the optimistic suggestions here, the Vorwarts saying that whether the German government would be called upon to further alter its terms if it hopes to achieve success with them.

On the other hand, the German government was willing to modify its reparations proposals if asked by Washington to do so, and that such a basis of agreement could be reached.

HORSE SHOW OPENS TODAY.

Society Function Comes Off at Flintridge Club.

Paper Chase to be Feature of Tomorrow's Card.

Many Famous Steeds Are to be on Exhibition.

Pasadena's annual two-day horse show will open in the Flintridge Country Club ring at 2 o'clock this afternoon. With 256 entries the event will be the most pretentious of the kind ever held in the Crown City. Ten classes are to be judged today and eleven tomorrow afternoon. The second day's program likewise will begin at 2 o'clock.

An interesting feature tomorrow morning will be a paper chase over the Flintridge trails, followed by a hunt breakfast at the clubhouse.

Numerous smart luncheon parties will be held both days at the clubhouse. The concluding feature will be a horse show dinner and ball at Hotel Vista del Arroyo Saturday night, which will be one of the notable society events of the year in Southern California. Both day and grand stand seats will be on sale at the ring tomorrow and Saturday.

A number of the Pacific Coast's most famous horses are entered in the show. Brouder and Cochetta, both exhibited by Royal L. English, will be notable attractions. Brouder is holder of the world's triple-bar jumping record. Cochetta, winner of first place in the five-gaited class at Santa Barbara last week, was one of the sensations of that event. Glorianna McDonald, established by Mrs. Martha Dandridge Bowers of Santa Barbara, took five blue ribbons at Santa Barbara, representing first place in every class again will seek the great honor are Henry Pfirrmann, Jr., and Frank H.

A distinguished visitor will be on the grounds, hailing from Sacramento. He is Frank M. Newbert, president of the California Fish and Game Commission.

Numerous visiting professionals will arrive today or tomorrow, including L. S. Hawhurst, Peter C.
D. Plenk of Western; Hugh Poston,

FOR TROPHY.

The practice day events will be 100 targets at sixteen yards and a 100-target, distance handicap, sixteen to twenty-three yards for the H.
Everding trophy.

The regular registered events will start on Monday. The shoot will open with 150 targets, sixteen-yard shoot, to be followed by twenty-five pair of doubles targets. The shoot will be class with four trophies up.
The H. E. Stanger trophy goes to the first shooter, the Cunningham trophy to the second shooter, the L.
A. Gun Club trophy to the third, and the Gene Murphy trophy to the fourth.

MURPHY PRIZE.

These trophies were drawn for positions. The Gene Murphy trophy, as handsome a set of silver as ever adorned Tiffany's windows, was drawn fourth and, no doubt, the winning shooter will have wished he had missed a few birds, and placed fourth.

Tuesday's shooting will consist of 150 targets at sixteen yards and a city-target, preliminary handicap.

The last 100 targets of the 150 will constitute the first half of the California-Nevada championship.

On the third and final day of the shoot, 100 targets will be shot at from sixteen yards with four trophies up and the final will be the second half of the championship, 100 targets.

The winner will draw down the American Trapshooters' Association trophy, a club purse and a trip complete to Chicago to contend in the Grand American Handicap.

FLASHES.

COMEDIAN'S PLANS.

CARTER DE HAVEN TO JOIN THE INDEPENDENTS.

By Gene Knaples.

Just as soon as ever Carter de Haven finishes his current picture, "My Lady Friends," at the Mayer studio, he is going to take Mrs. De Haven and the two children on a trip to New York. There the family will spend the summer visiting friends and relatives, returning early in the fall.

"My Lady Friends" is the last picture which De Haven will make under his present contract with First National. It is not likely that he will renew. In fact, he has decided that he will form his own company to produce in the West.

To this end he is now negotiating for the film rights to four stage successes of the last two seasons, and he expects to complete the purchase of these plays on reaching New York. He expects to make about four pictures a year.

Mr. De Haven considers "My Lady Friends" his best feature. And he says that while there's no significance to the fact, whatever, it follows "Marry the Poor Girl."

The De Havens have just completed the renovation of their beautiful home in Hollywood, recently purchased by them, and say they hate to leave it, but such is professional life. It will be in charge of a caretaker during their absence.

Rebe Daniels at Work.

After all, Rebe Daniels isn't to have one single bit of a vacation, following her incarceration in the Santa Ana jail. Instead she starts work today at the Reelart studio on a new picture.

There has been some talk on the part of Elmer Harris, author and director-general of the Reelart studio, about writing a play for the heroine as a theme, but it is not certain whether or not this has been done, especially in view of the fact that Miss Daniels feels very sensitive over the criticism she has because of her kind treatment while in jail.

Much indignation is felt by Miss Daniels' friends over this criticism. "Even a murderer may receive justice or a laborer may be a member of the State Women's War Relief, and as a seller of Liberty Bonds and a worker for the Salvation Army drive, should not have her term in jail made a little easier by her friends."

Excuse Me Note.

In the excuse me column goes the statement today that in reporting the marriage of Gladys Allison's husband, "Peter Pan," this is in part a mistake. His name is Frank Biddle, and he is the son of a local capitalist.

Charlie Murray Says It.

The jazz zoo of the Mack Bennett studio is being enlarged every day. Yesterday, Mr. Bennett, in addition to that contribution in terms of a tame wild cat, and though you wouldn't believe it, he saw it as I did, he has also added a rabbit-and-fox-terrier team in which the rabbit chases the fox-terrier around. Then, of course, there are Pepper, the cat, and her two children, and the bull terrier, which has the distinction of howling over nearly all the Bennett players at one time or another.

"And now," said Charlie Murray with innocent nonchalance, "We're thinking of giving the Bennett players a chance to remove animals by adding a blind pig!"

Mr. Murray, by the way, is working hard these days, as he's out at the Elks' Minstrels in the evening and a black-and-blue comedian by day.

Comedian Kids On and Off.

When Carter de Haven has a good joke pop into his head in the middle of a scene, he isn't going to ruin it for any old considerations of act or anything else. Yesterday he was playing in "The Little Fool" at the Mayer studio, and though Lloyd Ingraham was a better blitherer than he, he was full of pep as ever. The scene was one in which the young ladies were making a manding that he pay them each $50,000.

"But, young ladies," he was saying as a part of the story, "I'm not rich. I can't give you $50,000. Moreover, I won't; seven and a half a day is all any of you will get."

"The scene was busted up, and there had to be a retake."

Rox Ingram Honored.

There aren't going to be any hard feelings between Rex Ingram and the authorities of Yale University, if said authorities can help it. So said authorities have decided to bestow on Mr. Ingram the degree of B.A., which means Bachelor of Arts, and Mr. Ingram is going back to New Haven to receive the honor, as soon as ever he gets the making "The Conquering Power."

You see, Mr. Ingram once attended Yale University, but did not graduate. He even admits that he left under circumstances that had nothing whatever to do with graduating. But after he had made up his mind that perhaps producing that picture was almost, perhaps even quite, as important an achievement as having learned all the necessary ologies and isms, and that they would, in their wisdom, bestow a degree on the young director.

Ida St. Leon in Lead.

Life for Ida St. Leon seems to be just one successful role after another these days. In private life, Miss St. Leon is the wife of a local jeweler, blessed also with a 3-year-old baby, but to the public she's an idol, especially since her success in "Mamma's Affair."

Now, with the baby left safely in Mamma St. Leon's care, word reaches us from New York that Miss Ida has been engaged to play a leading role in the "Hunt for the Red Wheel," which is the new comedy, "The Wheel," which has been gambled as its theme.

Sargent Pictures.

Announcement was made yesterday that a new motion picture company, headed by Samuel M. Sargent, capitalist and oil operator, will begin operations in Los Angeles within the next week. According to the statement by Jack S. Nedell, who has been active in the film company, the new organization will be known as the Sargent Productions, and its output will be confined to

SIGNS WITH MOROSCO.

WESLEY RUGGLES TO DIRECT
"SLIPPERY MCGEE."

By Edwin Schallert.

With uncertainty still surrounding the time of Oliver Morosco's return to the Coast, activities at his newly organized picture studio seem to be progressing steadily. Announcement was made yesterday of the signing of Wesley Ruggles, heretofore director for Metro-Parkland and other concerns, to make the film version of "Slippery McGee," recently premiered in a play at the Little Theatre here. As already made known, Wesley Ruggles is to have the leading role, created on the local stage by William Desmond.

Mr. Morosco has advised his local office of the purchase of a new Owen Davis play, which is to have its first presentation here. As yet, however, he has not set any definite date for his return. He has even indicated that his western trip may be somewhat delayed, while he takes a trip to Europe. It is also possible that Mr. Morosco may shortly put on one of the plays which Morosco has secured.

"Mikado" Programmed Now.

"The Mikado" has been selected as the second offering of the California Opera Company at their approaching season at the Mason. "The Mikado" originally was to have been given, but a change was made in favor of the Gilbert and Sullivan work. The season will open with "The Firefly," May 16.

No Wedding This Time.

For once a Christie picture has been produced without a wedding. His name is "Sneakers," and it is to have its first local showing at the California next week. Neal Burns and Dorothy Devore, who have the leading roles, are married at the start of the story.

The plot is based on the efforts of the husband and wife to steal away from each other on a lark. Christie has made so many comedies in which weddings have been staged that he has lost count.

Vitaphone Head Leaves.

Albert E. Smith, president of Vitaphone, left yesterday for New York City, to spend several months at his New York offices and Vitaphone's Brooklyn studios, returning to Los Angeles the end of the summer.

Goldwyn Retaining.

Samuel Goldwyn, president of the Goldwyn Pictures Corporation, will arrive in America next week, following a European trip, which included England, France, Spain, Italy and Germany. After his return, his first rival he will travel west to Los Angeles to be present at the convention of Goldwyn officials and exchange managers, which is to open May 9 at the Culver City studios.

Vandeville Rumors.

Despite denials of such probability by local studio heads, rumors persist to the effect that Roscoe Arbuckle intends going out on a vaudeville tour. There seems very little authenticity to the reports, however, because Mr. Arbuckle is still busy with pictures and has considerable work in sight for some time to come.

Other stars mentioned in Orpheum announcements are likely soon to appear in vaudeville are June Elvidge, Zena Keefe, William Desmond, Lilian Walker and Hobart Bosworth. However, several of these people are rather too active in pictures to think of the once-a-day jump at present.

Rescue Hayakawa, Carlyle Blackwell, Charles Murray and Marie Prevost have apparently been considering vaudeville from time to time, but nothing definite has taken place in any of these instances.

"Peck's Bad Boy."

"Peck's Bad Boy" with Jackie Coogan as star, has been booked for the Kinema Theater, to open May 14.

Filmed on Tally Ranch.

It isn't often a picture blurs a piece of property owned by an exhibitor, but that's what's happened in the instance of "Unchartered Seas," starring Alton Lake, to show beginning tomorrow at Tally's Broadway. Scenes from the Glen Ranch resort, recently purchased by Mr. Tally, were "shot" as the background for some of the episodes.

Billie Burke's Picture.

Billie Burke's picture, "The Education of Miss Heiress," has been booked for the California Theater. It is a film adaptation of a comedy play written by Lillian Bradley and played in this country with success. The story deals with the cultural development of a rough-and-ready chorus girl.

"Sign on Door" Soon.

Norma Talmadge's picture version of "The Sign on the Door," in which Marjorie Rambeau recently appeared here on the stage, is soon to be released. It is announced.

Miss Talmadge's next picture under Herbert Brenson's direction is to be "The Wonderful Thing," adapted by Clara Beranger from the play written by Lillian Bradley and Forrest Halsey, in which Jeanne Eagles recently was featured in New York.

COMMITTEE SLASHES
TWO BUDGET ITEMS.

CITY'S EXPENSE ESTIMATE TO BE READY BY JUNE, SAYS ASHLEY.

The annual budget of the city's expenses, which is being considered by the Finance Committee of the City Council, sitting as a special budget committee, will be ready for final consideration early in June, Chester C. Ashley, chief deputy in the Auditor's office, stated yesterday.

The first survey of the proposed budget was completed by May 8, Mr. Ashley stated, and the final draft within a month from that date. It is probable that two or three surveys will be made of the proposed expenditures before reference to the Council. The subsequent surveys, however, will not consume much time, it was declared.

At a meeting of the committee yesterday $117,155 was cut out of the playground commission's request and $17 from the City Prosecutor's estimate of expenses for the year.

The committee will meet daily except Wednesday and Saturday for the purpose of considering the budget. Invitations sent out to business men to assist the committee in cutting down the expense of running the city government has not been taken advantage of, Councilman Conaway, chairman of the Finance Committee, declares.

MAKE GOOD "K. P.'S"

Society Women Shown in Role as They Entertain Veterans.

Four or five hundred disabled veterans of the World War, from the Soldiers' Home at Santa Anita and the Crocker-Hart Hospital, are expected to arrive here yesterday at the best "K. P." in the world. This convention follows an elaborate luncheon given them yesterday at the California Country Club, and served by a corps of Los Angeles women, including Mrs. D. D. Shor, head, chairman of the club's social activities; Mrs. Hancock Banning, president of the American League; Mrs. Giles Hall, Mrs. Charles Jeffers, Mrs. Margaret Shelby and Mrs. Harry Culver.

The outing was given the men by the California Country Club and the Los Angeles Realty Board. Members of the latter organization left their day's work to devote their time to entertaining the men. The day started with an automobile trip to Hollywood, Glendale and Griffith Park, included a visit to the Los Angeles ball park to watch the game between Los Angeles and San Francisco, and ended with an evening dinner at the Roma Cafe, where there were several vaudeville acts.

MUST BE APPROVED.

Legion to Indorse Drives Before Advertisers Subscribes.

A resolution stating that members of the Los Angeles Advertising Club will not indorse or contribute to any fund which is purported to be for the benefit of ex-service men, unless the fund and purpose have been approved by the American Legion, was adopted yesterday at a special meeting of the directors.

The resolution states that as there have been several funds started which were used illegitimately, it has been deemed advisable to ask the Legion to investigate such funds before the advertising organization makes any contribution.

FOR PALESTINE FUND.

Entertainment and Dance to Be Given at the Armory.

For the benefit of the restoration fund for Palestine, an all-star entertainment and dance will be given Saturday evening at Armory Hall, Exposition Park.

Among the screen players who will be featured on the program, which will open at 8 o'clock, preceding the dance by an hour, will be Carmel Myers, daughter of Hathi Shannan Day, who was a Ziegfeld girl for three years; Bebe Daniels and Margaret Loomis, whose dancing has gained her fame, is also on the program, while Paula D'Ohrman, soprano, and Lucile Protes, are down for numbers. The dancing will start with a grand march at 9 o'clock.

WOMAN POISONS SELF:
CONDITION IS GRAVE.

Virginia Raballie, wife of George Raballie, a newsdealer, swallowed several poison tablets in the bathroom of her home at 1623 North Alvarado street last night, according to a police report. She was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where Police Surgeon Deane treated her. The surgeon announced that her chances for recovery are uncertain.

JAPAN'S WOMEN SEEKING BALLOT

Also Are Making Prohibition an Early Issue.

Plan for Bill in the Diet to Regulate Sales.

Movements Start at W.C.T.U. Meet in Tokio.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
TOKIO, April 28.—(Delayed in Transmission).—A campaign for the acquisition of the ballot for Japanese women in order to effect the more fundamental aims of the Women's Christian Temperance Union in Japan was decided upon yesterday at the national conference of the W.C.T.U., now in session at Tokio. A committee was appointed to study ways and means, and to take steps towards affiliation with the International Woman Suffrage Association.

Spurred on by the successful efforts of American women in attaining a regime of prohibition in their country, a number of prominent Japanese women are vigorously conducting a dry campaign here. The most prominent figure in the movement is Mrs. Fumiko Nishikawa, president of an organization known as the "new and true woman's association." Its object is to promote the welfare of women in general, but its special activities at present are in the direction of prohibition.

TO INTRODUCE BILL.
Mrs. Nishikawa, discussing the prohibition campaign, said it was only in its beginning. She explained it was proposed to introduce a bill in the next Diet, providing:
(1.) Sale and all intoxicating liquors shall not be sold except between the hours of 4 and 8 p.m.
(2.) Intoxicants shall not be sold to minors.
(3.) The use of salicylic acid in sake shall be prohibited. (Salicylic acid is an antiseptic skin to carbolic acid, and when mixed with sake is said to be very harmful.)

Sake is the national alcoholic drink of Japan, which is distilled from rice. Mrs. Nishikawa is a graduate of the First Girls' High School of Kyoto, and is an active worker for social reform affecting both women and children.

BRITISH LAWMAKER GIVES ESTATE AWAY.

HOPKINSON BELIEVES SELF-SACRIFICE WILL AVERT REVOLUTION.

(A. P. FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.)
HYDE (Eng.), April 28.—Austin Hopkinson, a member of the House of Commons, has given to the local governing council of Hyde his mansion, valued at $150,000, and twenty other houses, and has with him in an old barn on what was once a part of his estate. He has taken this action because he believes that a manifestation of the spirit of self-sacrifice on the part of public servants would avert any danger of a revolution in England.

Mr. Hopkinson's other deeds of generosity include the disposal of his furniture to friend and the needy, partly by sale at bargain prices and partly by gift. He gave his handsome automobile to his chauffeur. The latter has now started in business with it. The former employer, the donor of the machine, is one of his customers.

So questioners Mr. Hopkinson has said his intention was to live the life of a simple workingman and to help others as much as possible. In his own workshops he has introduced a profit-sharing system that is without precedent, inasmuch as the higher the yield, the less he receives, and after a certain sum is reached, he is to receive nothing at all. During the war, Hopkinson was an officer. He was discharged as unfit, but rejoined as a private.

"Down with capitalism."
"Long live the social revolution."
"Free all political prisoners."
"Long live Russian soviet republic."
"Down with autocracy in America."

BANISHED CHINESE PRINCE RETURNS.

DEAN OF Peking DIPLOMATIC CORPS CALLS ATTENTION TO EXILE TERMS.

PEKING, March 29.—(Delayed.)
Return to Peking of Prince Tuan, after twenty years of exile from the capital for the leading part he played in the Boxer attack in 1900, has caused much comment in foreign circles and has impelled the dean of the diplomatic corps to call attention of the government to the terms of the protocol of 1901, which decreed for Tuan perpetual banishment and imprisonment in Turkey. It appears he never was banished nor imprisoned. He resides in Kansu.

Recently Tuan returned to Peking, ostensibly to bring the bodies of some of his relatives for burial. Some government officials, however, coming without their knowledge or permission. It is asserted he has already left for Mukden, headquarters of Marshal Chang-Tao-Lin, China's war lord.

Tuan is a great grandson of the Emperor Chia Ching, whose reign ended about 1820, and is now 85. During the siege of the legations, Tuan was appointed president of the Tungli Xamen, or Foreign Office, and he virtually controlled the policy of the old Emperor Dowager. He is said to have infuriated her against the foreigners by presenting a forged document which purported to be a demand by the foreign ministers for her abdication. The result was that the "old Buddha" decreed the extermination of all foreigners in China and offered rewards for their murder or capture.

On June 25 of that year, the Prince is reported to have forced his way into the palace and to have denounced the Emperor as a friend of the foreigners. For this he was rebuked, but continued his mercurial campaign against the besieged legations, trying to bring about a coup by which his son might become Emperor.

When foreign troops entered Peking he fled with his family to Sianfu and escaped. He lived for a time in Inner Mongolia and afterwards took up his residence in Kansu.

BRITISH MINE UNION TURNS DOWN OFFER.

GOVERNMENT'S SCHEME FOR ENDING COAL STRIKE COMES TO NAUGHT.

LONDON, April 28.—The miners' federation today rejected the government's new offer looking to a settlement of the coal strike, increasing the temporary subsidy to the industry from £1,500,000 to £10,000,000. The rejection was by an overwhelming majority.

This temporary subsidy the government had offered for the transitional period of four months, so that the wage reductions should not amount to more than 3 shillings a day. Today marked the end of the fourth week of the stoppage of coal mining.

When the conference of the miners' representatives and Sir Robert S. Horne, Chancellor of the Exchequer, began today, it was believed the government's offer of the transitional subsidy had brought the contending parties near a settlement, but after the Chancellor's talk with the miners' union delegates, they declared that the proffered subsidy grant was inadequate.

Public Utilities and Their Development; Steamship Stock Issue; News Notes.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

The securities of the public service companies engaged in the development of hydroelectric power in this State are a good and conservative investment. In the opinion of Mr. John W. Edmiston, retiring president of the investment bankers of California, who said yesterday that these securities possess the two principal elements of investment, namely, a substantial property and ability to pay.

"Neither the preferred stock nor the bonds of these companies can be issued and sold without the consent of the State Railroad Commission," Mr. Edmiston pointed out in emphasizing the value of these securities from the investor's point of view. The commission also establishes the earning power of the companies by fixing the rates they may charge for their service.

"Hydroelectric development in California is an important to the economic life of its industries that it engages the brains and energy of many of its most successful citizens as well as important branches of the State and Federal governments," Mr. Edmiston continued. "These men and these branches of the government have, within the short period of twenty-five years, created and perfected the present truly wonderful system which without coal, oil, gasoline or other fuel, turns all the machinery in great industrial plants and irrigates the new intensively cultivated valleys of the State.

"This condition is in a measure responsible for the increase of 100,000 of population a year during the last decade. I mean that by this electrical development, employment in new manufacturing industries is furnished to additional families and the section of land once devoted to dry farming as a unit will support and give profit to a family on each quarter of a quarter of that same section.

"The cost in actual money spent on this work has been very great and has been increased by conditions to be overcome which could not have been foreseen and by the improvement in the art replacing uneconomical plants, but now that these obstacles are overcome, the thing to do is to go ahead to provide more power to take care of more people on the farms and bring more industries to the State."

DOROTHY DIX TALKS

The Girl and the Married Man.

BY DOROTHY DIX.

A young girl writes me that she and a married man are in love with each other. She says that their affection is pure and idealistic, and that she does not expect, or desire, the man to forsake his wife and marry her.

"Do you think any harm can come of such a beautiful love?" she asks.

"Do you think any good can come of it?" I would ask her in reply.

Leaving out of the question the wrong that a woman does her sister-woman when she encourages her husband to be faithless to her, and the irreparable injury she does to the children whose father she takes away from them—for no man can do his duty as a father and be a philanderer at the same time—let us consider the case of the girl alone.

What good does she get out of a love affair with a married man?

She will say, "True. But she gets the love in the bottom of the cup of love, not the wine. The brief hours of rapture that she knows in loving, and being loved, do not compensate her for the days and weeks and months and years of black despair that are the inevitable portion of nursing a hopeless passion."

Every young girl dreams of love, but she dreams of it coming to her as something that will crown her life with joy, something that will have no regrets bound up with it, something of which she can boast and be proud. And she expects this love to flower into a wedding bell.

The girl who falls in love with a married man can never know the clean happiness of love. Hers is always the guilty passion, something furtive and to be hidden. Her romance does not wander down hazy paths. It walks behind closed doors and at clandestine meetings at shabby restaurants, and taking from every side its sweetness, is the knowledge that one is not playing the game, that one is not sporting, that in the background there is a helpless woman, who is being robbed without being given a chance to defend herself.

The woman who has a love affair with a married man must perform under such agonies of jealousy as are almost punishment enough for her folly and her sin. She sees another woman bear the name of the man she loves, and occupies the social position that he gives her. She knows that the man who tells her he loves her would not ask her to his house, or introduce her to his friends, or more than casually greet her on the street. She knows that while he tells her that his wife does not understand him, and that he is tired of her, yet that they are bound together by a thousand ties of mutual interest, and that just because a woman is a man's wife, sets her apart for him from all other women.

No other woman in the world goes through such grinding torment of suspicion and anxiety and jealousy, as does the girl, who is in love with a married man. She knows no moment in which the green-eyed monster does not bear her bitter comis as yellow as they come, and is not to be trusted.

To the girl who wants to know if there is any wrong in having a love affair with a married man I would suggest the one infallible test for any such hunch problem, which is to try it on herself.

Let her put herself in the other woman's place. Let her think of herself as having grown middle-aged, and lost her beauty, and then ask herself if she would think it right for some girl, pretty and slim, and young enough to be her daughter, to come along and take her husband away from her, and break up her home, and make her children fatherless.

The girl who permits herself to love a married man is both fool and sinner, and gets the punishment here and hereafter, of both.

LETTERS TO "THE TIMES."

Two Much Hearst.

LOS ANGELES, April 28.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I have been a reader of the Los Angeles Times and Examiner for several years, mainly for the purpose of ascertaining the real quality of two publications and to see if a newspaper could really present the news in a truthful and unbiased manner. I have come to the conclusion, however, that your paper is without editorial policy and general make-up. At the same time it has formed an everlasting opinion that yellow streaks of journalism cannot be helped or stopped in Hearst's Examiner. It can't be done.

It is perfectly natural for Kaiser Hearst to direct the affairs of Los Angeles from his throne in New York City. It is not unusual for him to claim a world beating circulation that is "superb and stupendous." Or to screech from his chair that he is working for the public and that every other journal is against the people. We could expect him to reprint editorials written by himself in "behalf of the people" alleging that certain merchants in this city were encroaching upon the rights of the "taxpayer" by building "huge" structures over city property. It would not be impossible for him to give space to an interview taken and written by one of the staff writers to cover up a recent vice expose made by an enterprising newspaper.

It is the "greater circulation" idea of the "Times" which is the cause of its being a "yellow" paper. The Times is known from one end of the country to the other for its absolute accuracy in the printing of news and its unbiased editorial section which is well edited. Another excellent feature is the open forum column or the "Letters to The Times," which permits persons to discuss various questions in an interesting manner.

I am also pleased to notice the absence of objectionable matter in the advertising columns of The Times, which runs very prominently in the Hearst Journal on Sunday. I have traveled many miles from ocean to ocean, and in all my experiences I never read a more interesting and clean-cut newspaper than the Los Angeles Times. Yours for better news.

Q: Is Mrs. Hemans' famous poem, "The Boy Stood on the Burning Deck" founded in fact? I. G. H. A: Mrs. Hemans' poem, "Casablanca" is founded on the death of Louis Casablanca, a French naval officer. As captain of the flagship Orient, he commanded the fleet which transported Napoleon to Egypt. In the battle of Abukir, Admiral Bruix was killed and Casablanca was put in command. He was wounded and the ship caught fire, but still he remained at his post. His 10-year-old son would not leave his father and both were killed when the ship was blown up.

CAMPAIGN GETS ADDED IMPETUS.

Office Seekers Are Ready for Final Vote Drive.

Women's Aim in Politics Told by Mrs. Swindell.

Conrad, Sparks, Allan Have Had Varied Experiences.

BY THE WATCHMAN.
The Los Angeles Central W.C.T.U. will hold a public mass meeting at 2:30 p.m., today, at 301 North Broadway. The following candidates have been invited to address the meeting: for Board of Education, Egerton Shore, M. Zeane York, Elliott Craig, Robert A. Odell and Mrs. Mary C. Millsaugh; for City Council, Robert M. Allan, Mrs. Ida Wood, Darling, Col. F. H. Trus and Mrs. Emma B. Swindell.

The Sixty-eighth Street Improvement Association will hold a meeting this evening in the Sixty-eighth street schoolhouse, Sixty-eighth and Denver. A number of the candidates at the coming primaries have been invited to make addresses and to tell their plans for putting through improvements in this district.

Mrs. Emma B. Swindell is making many addresses before women's clubs and civic organizations throughout the city in her campaign for the City Council. She was urged to run by her friends and by a number of organizations, including the Association for Betterment of Public Service. Mrs. Swindell says: "I believe in law enforcement, but am not strong for law enactment. We have too many laws on our statute books now. I believe in fewer laws and those obeyed."

"During the period of reconstruction, our nation is looking for stabilizing force and if women can supply that needed help, their future in governmental affairs is assured."

"Women approach the City Council with only constructive ideas in mind. It is a desire to help to serve to be useful, to share the responsibility and help to form a well-balanced, well-regulated government."

"Women in all lines of endeavor are struggling for human advancement or the advancement of mankind. We cannot always measure our work in a material way, but by the intangible factors of civilization—like better sense, sincerity of purpose, clearer vision, finer thinking and calmer minds. Human progress is founded upon better individuals. If I am elected, I shall endeavor to carry on this work for a better city and better citizenship."

Experience and an intimate knowledge of the city's needs are the two outstanding qualifications of Albert B. Conrad, candidate for the City Council, as advanced by his supporters. Here is his public record: Born in Sacramento county; educated in public schools; miner and surveyor since years in California and Arizona; came to Los Angeles in 1914; first public office as deputy County Tax Collector; during smallpox epidemic in 1917, became volunteer nurse and converted old pest house from unsanitary, rain-soaked shack into comfortable and healthy quarters, saving many lives; was county assessor for Los Angeles Central City; three terms under Judge Silent; Fred W. Wood and Bradner W. Lee; earlier on old Los Angeles City Council in 1913 and after that book-keeper to sergeant-at-arms in State Senate under Gov. Gage, paid

WINERY SEIZURE WILL BE ASKED

Thousands of Gallons at Escondido Seized; Owners Held.

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.
SAN DIEGO, April 28.—Dominic Morro and Dominick Contrera, recently arrested by Deputy Sheriff Saxon and R. N. Gusweiler, prohibition enforcement agent, who accused them of selling wine freely as their wives near Escondido, were held to answer in the Federal District Court, following their hearing before U. S. Commissioner Andrews, and were released on $1500 bail each.

Following their arrest Mr. Gusweiler seized their stock of wine, said to amount to more than 12,000 gallons, and put it under government seal. He will ask for confiscation of the liquor, he states, as well as of the premises on which the winery is located.

All bills and salaries, and was clerk to Senate Judiciary Committee in 1920. His first office in Los Angeles was as deputy Assessor under William Wimmer and Mayor H. H. Rose appointed him City Tax and License Collector. This office was later consolidated with that of the city engineer. In 1917 he ran for City Council and was elected. Served until 1919. He was on many important committees, including Public Works and Harbor committee. During his various terms of office he handled $100,000,000 of the people's money.

Mr. Conrad's platform is: "Development of the harbor so as to encourage shipping, commerce and industries; use of every inch of water in the aqueduct, using waste water to develop electric energy; district representation; aid for disabled veterans; repeal of occupational tax; lower taxation through efficient business administration; police protection to the fullest with more policemen when necessary; an adequate fire department and fire prevention laws; submission of all questions of city government to the voters."

The following statement was issued yesterday from the office of the Federation of State Societies:

"The public welfare committee of the Federation of State Societies, which is handling the matter of the endorsement of some candidates for the coming primary election, is receiving many congratulations upon the selections made by the committee."

"The federation has always carefully avoided all connection with politics and the endorsement is working without reference to political affiliations. Reports from all sections indicate that many are influenced toward better candidates. The endorsement of George E. Cryer for Mayor was unanimous with those present, not a dissenting voice being cast though the ballot was a secret one. Col. Frank H. Trus, O. P. Conaway, Benjamin Bogardus, F. C. Langdon, Robert M. Allan, E. J. McLaughlin, Mrs. Emma B. Swindell were supported for the Council, and C. J. McCormick, Miss Louise Lee, Edgerly E. Ashby, Melville Dossier, Egerton Shore, C. E. Seaman and Mrs. Mary E. Garbutt were selected for the Board of Education."

"The welfare committee recognizes the fact that the endorsements are not binding on the members of the State societies but after long and careful study they are recommended as the ones best fitted to serve our interests as a city."

R. S. (Cupid) Sparks, candidate for the City Council, is an expert accountant. In the Los Angeles County Assessor's office the auditing system in use today was installed by him. He also spent some time in the cashier's and auditing departments of the County Tax Collector's office. Prior to his becoming a resident of this city, seventeen years ago, he was engaged in the grain and stock brokerage business for fifteen years in Minneapolis. Mr. Sparks has been endorsed by the Retail Grocers' Association, Merchant Plumbers' Association, and many others, and has been recommended by the Association for the Betterment of Public Service.

At a meeting held in Sawtelle last night Frank Purcell, candidate for the City Council, spoke on district representation and in the course of his talk made the following remarks: "District representation in city government is just as necessary as it is in national government, for there are local needs in each part of the community which can be served best by one who is familiar with these needs. The city of Los Angeles should be redistricted and the people should be given a Council of experienced business men who would represent all parts of the community."

Robert M. Allan, candidate for City Council, was born in St. John, N. B. Can., in 1880. He is 40 years of age. At the age of 18 he moved to Boston, where he spent six years before coming to Los Angeles in 1904. He is a member of the firm of Allan-MacMaster Company, general insurance and finance, in the Union Oil Building; president of the Guaranty Finance Corporation, and has been active in real estate and insurance circles for ten years. He has given of his time to many progressive and philanthropic work. He is a member of the committee of management, central branch, Young Men's Christian Association, on the board of stewards of the First Methodist Church, a member and active worker in the City Club. During the Red Cross Liberty Bond and T.M.C.A. drives for work overseas Mr. Allan gave weeks of his time to this work.

WORKMAN RAPS BLUE, DRY LAWS.

Would Fight "Limitists" to Finish as Mayor.

Calls Proposed Legislation Blow at Tourists.

Liberal, Open-Minded Stand Urged on People.

Blue-law legislation in all forms was scored yesterday in speeches by Boyle Workman and by Dr. Aylmer Harding, espousing Mr. Workman's candidacy for Mayor.

"If the bone-dry ordinance should be adopted it would tie us up so that we would have a different law locally than in any other part of the United States, interfere with our tourist crop, and necessitate another election to repeal it in case the Volstead Act was repealed," Mr. Workman told 100 members of the Southern California Voters' Association, meeting at 228 1/2 South Spring street in the afternoon. "The slogan for us is 'Greater Southern California, Straight Ahead' and we must permit nothing to bar us from attaining that great idea. We must be liberal, open-minded, and we must permit nothing to bar us from attaining that great idea. We must be liberal, open-minded, and we must permit nothing to bar us from attaining that great idea."

"I do not intend to stand idle and permit these limitists to foist their Sunday blue law legislation or their bone dry ordinance upon us as Mayor of Los Angeles, shall fight them to the last ditch."

"We cannot permit men without imagination to endeavor to control us, but must choose judiciously," Mr. Workman said, in speaking at the evening at a meeting in the Labor Temple, several hundred members of the Brotherhood of Car Men of America. "We want men who are fighters, not mollycoddlers."

Dr. Harding, who is organizer of the American Independence League of Northern California and for several years a resident here, spoke on behalf of Mr. Workman's candidacy at a meeting of the Star Chamber of Commerce. He said Mr. Workman is interested especially in harbor development.

PLATFORM CONSTRUCTIVE.
"Not only is Mr. Workman's platform constructive, but it is decidedly affirmative," he said. "He has unlimited courage and it is that sort of man Los Angeles needs in the present situation. He was born in Los Angeles, had a father who was one of our ablest mayors, and comes equipped with experience from boyhood as well as hereditary talents to place him in a better position than any other man in Los Angeles to handle the position of Mayor. He has been a successful banker for fourteen years and can assist any City Council because of his own experience as president of that body."

BULLOCK'S WINS MORE BACKING.

believe it to be to the best interest of the city, as well as justice to Bullock's, that the voters of this city be requested to vote 'NO' on Nos. 1 and 2 and 'YES' on No. 3, which provided for the payment to the city by Bullock's of $12,000 per annum as rental for said premises."

The Chamber of Commerce resolution read: "Whereas, the only interest or title the city of Los Angeles has in a blind alley known as St. Vincente Place is the right to use such place as an alley; and "Whereas, for many years it has been the custom authorized by law for the city of Los Angeles to grant permits for the construction and maintenance of structures of various kinds under the streets and alleys of said city; and "Whereas, in pursuance of the laws of the State of California, and charter of the City of Los Angeles, the legislative body of said city did, in 1917 and 1918, grant to Bullock's permits to construct and maintain overhead structures across and above the blind alley known as St. Vincente's Place, such structures in no way interfering with or encroaching upon the use of said place as an alley; and "Whereas Bullock's, relying upon the permits so granted, has entered into fifty-year leases for the corner of Seventh and Hill streets, and has already expended the sum of $100,000 in the erection of such authorized connecting structures, and contemplates improvements amounting to $1,500,000 additional upon the leased premises adjoining the alley in the event that such permits are not revoked; and

"Whereas, the good name of a city depends upon the honesty shown in all of its dealings; and "Now, therefore be it resolved, that the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce, after a careful investigation of all the facts, find that it would be a reflection upon the integrity and fair name of this city to revoke the permits which were issued under the authority of law and which were accepted and acted upon in good faith; and "Be it further resolved that the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce earnestly recommend to the voters of the City of Los Angeles to vote 'NO' on proposition No. 1; vote 'NO' on proposition No. 2; and for the purpose of accepting the offer of Bullock's to pay $12,000 per year for the maintenance of these structures, to vote 'YES' on proposition No. 3."

Received Love Notes While in Daze, Wife Says.

Harry G. Vorhauer, defending the divorce suit of Gladys R. Vorhauer in Judge Sumnerfield's court yesterday, was granted a decree of cross-complaint on the ground of cruelty.

The court cleared Mrs. Vorhauer of the charge of misconduct. On her own behalf, Mrs. Vorhauer declared on the stand that after her husband left her, she became dependent, wandered around in a daze and it was at that time she received a number of love notes Mr. Vorhauer introduced in evidence. Her condition was such that she could barely remember what she did, she said.

A Sale of 300 New Dresses

An Event Featuring Prices Astonishingly Low $19.75, $39.75, and $59.75

An Opportune Purchase brings about this special sale wherein you are to share in Advantages Extraordinary!

The dresses are seasonable—just what you want for immediate wear. They are decidedly New—very candidly, they just came to our store from New York.

Every model is interesting and is made along fashionable lines; some with or without tunics and others with flying panels; silk and bead embroideries, pretty organdie or net collar and cuffs, and pleatings, ruffles and tucks add smart decorative notes. The styles include front and back closings and the majority have the short or three-quarter length sleeves. In fabrics, too, they are all that you and fashion demand, for there are lovely Canton crepes, tricotines, taffetas, satins, tricolettes, crepe de chine and jerseys.

One feature will especially impress you—the variety of seasonable colorings.

Dresses at $19.75

In this group are such fascinating models as the three illustrated at the left. The first a navy taffeta with box pleatings of taffeta. The second a beautiful deep blue Canton crepe, lavishly embroidered in beige and blue silk. Next, a tricolette of soft wren shade, featuring slenderized lines.

Dresses at $39.75

This group includes such lovely styles as the extremely youthful model at the left of blue taffeta with sleeves, girde and fly panels flecked with tiny embroidered flower baskets. The first two on the right are also of this group; one a simple frock of gray crepe de chine with over drape, neatly trimmed with braid; the other, a trim serge tailleur with box pleated side panels and white vest with collar worn suit fashion.

Dresses at $59.75

The three models at the extreme right were selected at random from this group of charming frocks. The first, of white tricolette, is adorned with clever designs in wren colored silk. The figure seated wears a white Canton crepe frock, exquisitely embroidered with white, green and wistaria. The third model of tan polart twill is an interesting adaptation of the coat frock, sparingly trimmed with braid rosettes of tan.

ALL SOUTHLAND TO GREET MAY.

Celebrations from Fresno to San Diego Scheduled.

Covina Will Have Unusually Elaborate Program.

Raisin Festival to Be Held Two Days This Year.

All Southern California joins in a welcome to the month of May. From Fresno to San Diego fairs and festivals are scheduled, which give expression to the carnival spirit always abroad at this season, and afford opportunities to display the wonders of the rural world which flourish here to a greater extent and in greater variety than any other part of the country.

At Covina there will be an unusually elaborate program tomorrow morning, afternoon and night. The Covina Chamber of Commerce, American Legion, California Fruit Growers' Exchange and associations, San Gabriel Valley pioneers, school children and teachers will join in honoring "The Spirit of Summer" for the bounty in oranges, lemons and lemons it has brought to the district.

All church, fraternal and mercantile organizations, together with the old settlers, Legionnaires, citrus growers and school children will take part in the festival. It will move through the valley from 9:30 to 11 o'clock in the morning. Then Maypoes will be held for the children, and at noon the pioneers will assemble at a banquet. Rev. H. H. Walker of Los Angeles will be the principal speaker.

OLD-TIME RODEO.
Bicycle races for the youth of the high school district will be held at 2 o'clock. Citrus High School of Azusa and Glendora will play the Covina High School team. There will be seven races for range and saddle ponies and last night rodeo. In addition, the Covina Gun Club will hold a trap shoot.

Upper San Gabriel Valley Post, American Legion, will conduct the evening events. An Army show supper will be served at 8 o'clock. Addresses will be made by Byron Pitts, state commander, and Barney Ouse, organizer of the original Legion post in Paris. At 10 o'clock wrestling and boxing contests will be held under the auspices of the Amateur Athletic Union. George Blake of the Los Angeles Athletic Club will be referee. The March field military band will have place on the day and night programs.

At Fresno the annual Raisin Festival will be held two days instead of one, as has been the rule in the past. The celebration will open this morning with a parade of floats which, it is said, will outdo the efforts of all former years. A queen will preside over her court of flowers and receive attendance from more than a score of pretty "Raisin" girls of the San Joaquin Valley. Other events attracting thousands to the Raisin City are a combined chorus of more than 1000 voices and a program of sports tomorrow featuring an automobile race.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.
Narcissa will hold a birthday party for her mother and will expect to attract thousands.

Redlands, with a two-day celebration commencing today, will present the most elaborate program yet attempted by that city. A municipal pageant in which more than 500 actors will take part is to be presented. Electrical effects and special dances will feature the event.

At Sierra Madre, Santa Monica, Ocean Park and other places flower shows which have been in progress most of the week will come to a close tomorrow evening with special programs.

Club's Barber Jailed; Say He Attacked Girl.
Charged with having knocked down and beaten Belle Johnson, 24 years of age, a manicurist in the Los Angeles Athletic Club barber shop, George Hugo, 35 years of age, head barber in the shop, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Police Detective Bakker and was locked up when he was unable to raise $1000 bail.

Witnesses yesterday stated that Hugo kicked the girl after knocking her down. Following the attack, which took place on Wednesday, it is stated, the girl was removed to her home at 1239 Echo Park avenue and placed under the care of a physician.

Late yesterday afternoon Miss Johnson's father called at the office of the City Prosecutor and demanded that Hugo be taken into custody. A battery complaint was issued. When arrested Hugo refused to make any statement except to deny the charges.

BANDITS WIN AND LOSE.

Youths Rob Man Waiting for Car; Two Other Thugs Routed.

Two youths on a motorcycle held up H. A. Kennedy of 209 West Eighty-second street as he was waiting for a street car at Eighty-second street and Monica avenue last night and robbed him of $12, according to his report to the police.

Two other bandits were routed in a fight by Frank Kline, an employee of a newspaper, who lives at Fifth street and Broadway, when they attempted to rob him in the Normal Hill Center grounds, he reported to Detective Hickey.

LEGION PROTESTS AGAINST ATTACK.

Resolutions were adopted last evening by Los Angeles Post No. 3, American Legion, protesting against the political activities of an unnamed local organization which, the resolutions state, has attacked the Legion in circulars bearing on the majority contest. About 400 members of the post were present. The resolutions are signed by Charles K. Eaton, Bert Humason and Walter Brinkop.

LAND CLAIM OF HERO IS UNDER FIRE.

Cripple Who Looked After Brother's Child in Time of War Asks Patent.

An interesting story developed yesterday in the hearing of the contest of the government against Alric B. Whitlock, involving an enlarged homestead of 320 acres near Hesperia. The government asserts that Mr. Whitlock did not live on the land the time required by the public land laws, and that, therefore, he is not entitled to a patent.

During the examination of Whitlock by his attorney, Mal Frank Prescott, the difficulties attending the working of a government land claim by a cripple who had sacrificed much for his brother who was in the army fighting the Germans, was eloquently told.

Alric B. Whitlock, the contestee, filed on the land in 1915. A year later a forest fire destroyed his house and everything in it. He built another temporary residence and was at work clearing the land when the World War broke out. Alric, being a cripple (he lost one of his feet in an accident some years ago), could not go to war, but his brother, Claude Whitlock, did. The brother had a seven-year-old daughter, and Alric agreed to care for the little one until her allotment should arrive, but it afterwards turned out that the allotment did not reach the Whitlocks until after the return of the father of the little girl after the close of the war.

While the brother was away in France, Alric Whitlock had the care of an aged father and mother, and in addition his little niece. It was a hard struggle for him.

The testimony showed that when it became necessary for Alric Whitlock to seek some occupation that would assist in providing funds for the family, he took a position in a shoe factory at Alhambra, and every Saturday night he would take a bicycle ride to his claim in the vicinity of Hesperia, more than 100 miles away, and work Sundays to carry out the requirements of the homestead law.

Now the government declares that he did not live on the land the required time, taking account of the absence of Whitlock in Alhambra, where he was trying to make enough money to support the large family on his hands by accepting employment away from his claim.

REGISTER AT HOTEL GIVES WIFE PROOF.
Actress Wins Divorce from Scenario Writer Now in East; Rival Unnamed.

Mrs. Norma M. Talbot was granted a divorce from Hayden Talbot in Judge Walton J. Wood's court yesterday. The story she told was that of a woman slighted for another woman whose name did not appear in the evidence.

Mrs. Talbot is an actress, who has appeared on the stage in this city and elsewhere. While she was in New York her husband visited her there. She wanted to come to Los Angeles; he desired that she stay in New York, she told the court. Then, it is declared, he told her there was another woman with whom he was infatuated.

The desire became very strong on the part of Mrs. Talbot to see for herself what the attraction here was for her husband, a newspaper man and scenario writer. She came. A hotel registry convinced her. She sued for divorce. Mrs. Talbot is in New York. He has a commission to go to Germany and investigate conditions there for a New York newspaper.

Judge Wood ordered Mrs. Talbot alimony of $2500, to be paid at the rate of $150 a month for twenty months. She was represented by Attorney Leonard B. S. Sisson. Mrs. Herbert Standing was a witness, testifying as to Mrs. Talbot's residence in this city. Mrs. Talbot will leave for New York this week.

NEGATIVE SIDE WINS.
Loyola College Debaters Discuss Open and Closed Shops.

Judges decided in favor of the team debating on the negative side of the question, "Resolved, that the present system of the open shop is more indicative of American industrial progress than the closed shop" at Loyola College last night. Both teams were selected from senior students of the college.

The winning orators are Leo Angler and Thomas McGovern. The affirmative team consisted of James Rabbitt and John Costello. The judges were Judge Summerfield, Judge Weyl and Judge Hewitt. John Dockweiler was chairman. Thomas McGovern was also awarded a gold medal as the best speaker of the four debaters.

TAINTED MEAT KILLS.
Eighteen-month-old Baby Is Victim of Spoiled Food.

After eating spoiled meat which he had found in an ice box, Wallace B. White, Jr., the 18-month-old baby of Wallace B. White, the undertaker, was seized with convulsions, from which the infant died last night. When the baby's condition was notified Dr. H. N. Rowley was summoned and a record run was made to the White residence by the police ambulance. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

TAKEN TO TENNESSEE ON MANN ACT CHARGE.

Deputy United States Marshal Bell left yesterday for Knoxville, Tenn., having in custody John Barnes, wanted on an indictment returned there charging violation of the Mann White Slave Act. Barnes was captured at Bakersfield, where he was engaged at work in the oil industry. The name of the woman in the case is Mary Jones. Deputy Marshal Walton took G. W. Regan, sentenced to eighteen months in the Federal penitentiary on McNeill Island, for passing a "falsified" $10 bill, and Harry Stoviss, with a sentence of a year and a day for violation of the immigration law.

For Your Health's Sake— LEONARD CLEANABLE REFRIGERATORS One Piece Porcelain Lined—"Like a Clean China Dish"

Cold Dry Air Circulation is constantly maintained on highly scientific principles, the air being forced to rise to the highest point in the provision chamber before it goes back to the ice for re-purifying and chilling.

The Leonard Cleanable is lined with smooth hard, glistening white porcelain all in one piece and with rounded corners. The linings are made of heavy sheet steel with the porcelain fused on in three coats at a temperature of 2000 degrees.

Ten Heat-Resisting Walls of Insulation keep the cold air in and the warm air out. Thus, an even low temperature is secured, insuring economy of ice consumption and efficiency of operation.

This is the famous Leonard Rounded Front inside corner with the porcelain lining coming way to the outside edge of the door frame. So round and smooth that it is really no corner at all. Feel of it.

The Door Plate is all one smooth piece of porcelain—pan shaped—no wood exposed anywhere on inside of Refrigerator.

The shelves are open, woven wire mesh, heavily retinned, placed on aluminum pins. Merely lift out for cleaning.

The Drain Pipe and Trap is located where it is easily accessible, but not in the way. It lifts out for cleaning. Made of non-corroding material. The trap is inside the refrigerator and has a conducting wire to lead the water to the side of the refrigerator without touching the waste pipe.

Hinges and Locks all made in the Leonard foundry. Artistic design, strong, durable and heavily nickel-plated.

The Ice Rack is made of heavy galvanized iron. Will not rust or leak and sets well down in the ice chamber out of the way. Simply lift out for cleaning.

The Trigger Lock grabs the door when you shut it and pulls the door to an air tight joint so no cold air can escape.

Casters are made of Lignum Vitae. Are easy running, strong and substantial.

The Base Board lifts up and is as handsomely grained and finished as the rest of the woodwork.

The door sill and floor of the provision chambers are even, thus making cleaning much easier than where the floors sunk below the door sill.

Beware of Tender Gums

Unhealthy soil kills the best of wheat. Unhealthy gums kill the best of teeth. To keep the teeth well, keep the gums well. Watch for tender and bleeding gums. This is a symptom of Pyorrhea, which affects four out of five people over forty.

Pyorrhea menaces the body as well as the teeth. Not only do the gums recede and cause the teeth to decay, loosen and fall out, but the infecting Pyorrhea germs lower the body's vitality and cause many serious ills.

To avoid Pyorrhea, visit your dentist frequently for tooth and gum inspection. And use Forhan's For the Gums.

Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—check its progress, if used in time and used correctly. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's will keep the gums firm and healthy, the teeth white and clean. Start using it today. ## Repudiates Mother for Brother's Sake.

Mrs. Cathryn E. McIntosh.

BOY GIVES UP HOPE OF FAITH CURE.

Case in Court as Way to Gain Operation for Knee
Fractured in Accident.

The case of Richard A. Bailey, 11 years of age, developed an unexpected angle yesterday. Instead of the parents of the young man, Mr.
and Mrs. Franklin R. Bailey, objecting to an operation for his fractured knee, and relying on faith healing, they declared in Judge Way's court that they never opposed surgery.

It was Richard himself, brought into the courtroom on a stretcher to have his sister, Mrs. Cathryn E.
McIntosh, appointed guardian of his person and estate so that an operation might be performed, who said:

"When I signed the petition of my sister, I thought it was the only way to have an operation. Later I found out I could get the consent of my parents."

"I could not get an operation performed without having a guardian appointed," said Richard. "I decided not to have an operation. Mater I changed my mind and decided to call in medical aid. I have been thinking of it constantly."

"I will continue the case until tomorrow morning," ruled the court.
"If the written consent of the parents to an operation is filed with me, I will dismiss the guardianship petition."

The court stage was set for a bitter legal battle, between Mrs.
McIntosh, representing Mrs. Mc-Intosh, and Attorney Dunning of Pasadena as counsel for Mrs. Bailey.
A few hours previous to hearing the guardianship petition, mother and daughter faced each other at the County Hospital, where Mrs.
Bailey was charged with insanity.

The daughter contended that her mother would not permit Richard to receive surgical attention. Judge Way dismissed the case on the ground that no evidence had been offered to support the charge of insanity.

City is Combed for Bandit Who Attacked Woman

With a complete description of the man in the hands of every police officer in the city, scores of detectives yesterday afternoon continued the search for the unidentified bandit who attacked Mrs. Margaret Parker, 28 years of age, in her home at 907 College street yesterday morning. The wanted man, the police believe, is in hiding in the hills somewhere about Elysian Park.

According to the account given to the investigating officers by Mrs.
Parker, she was surprised early yesterday morning, while alone with her 3-year-old son, by a man walking into the house through the rear door. Ordering her not to cry out, the stranger dragged her into the kitchen of her residence and fled, following a battle in which Mrs.
Parker was beaten on the head,
face and body.

UNUSUAL ELECTRICAL EXHIBIT DUE SUNDAY.

The electrical exhibit of the General Electric Company and its eight associated companies will arrive in its special car Sunday and will be on view Tuesday in the Trinity Auditorium. There will be free lectures, one from 3 to 5 p. m. and another from 8 to 10:30 p. m., according to announcement yesterday by Frank Atrey, district manager of the Pacific States Electrical Company.

The exhibit is designed to instruct retailers and jobbers, but is of interest to the public. It has been on view in many cities, beginning in New York January 10, and will end its tour here. The latest electrical devices for homes, stores and factories are shown on a revolving stage. In addition there are miniature store windows and industrial lighting displays. The exhibit requires the attention of treaty electrical specialists.

ITCHING ECZEMA FOR 4 YEARS

Limbs in Pimples, Burned and Could Not Rest.
Cuticura Healed.

"I suffered for about four years with eczema on my limbs, from my knees down. At first they were very small pimples, and after a while the skin began to swell and get thick and crack open. My clothing rubbed against the eruptions, causing awful itching and burning, and I could not rest at all. I began to use Cuticura and got well, and when I had used two boxes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment I was healed."
(Signed) Nelson Smith, Cache, Ill.

Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Tal-cum powder will maintain skin purity, skin comfort and skin health when all else fails.

Presents 108 Independent Sales At One Time—The Entire Store Co-Operating With Spirited Enthusiasm to Make April 29th The Best Value-Day So Far

THIS TIME WE LIST ALL OPPORTUNITY DAY SALES ON ONE PAGE

This, we believe, will be a welcome deviation from our usual custom of using two or three pages.

The values are of super-importance—better than we have been able to offer in many moons—in fact, it was the very magnitude of the 108 independent sales that made us know we MUST change our usual policy.

We hope you like it—and may we urge your early shopping, if you can arrange it, so that business may be more equally distributed throughout the day, thus affording greater service to all.

In a month's business of the magnitude of Hamburger's there are various groups of merchandise that can be purchased to advantage, various groups in our own stocks that need replacing—much of this we attend to for "Opportunity Day."

Values are always special—they may be repeated specials at the same price—they may have new prices—but every time offers a price advantage. Today there are 108 of these independent sales!
